TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

SINN FEIN CONGRESS.

DE VALERA OPPOSES TREATY.

PASSIVE RESISTANCE ADVOCATED.

LONDON, February 21.

The Ardus assembled in Dublin with 2,700 delegates. Mr. De Valera moved the rejection of the treaty.

LATER.

Moving the rejection of the treaty in the Ardus of Sinn Fein National Convention, Mr. De Valera recommended passive resistance as an alternative to resumption of war.

Mr. Griffiths moved an amendment approving the treaty but the debate developed a tendency in favour of a compromise based on postponement of the elections until the constitution had been drafted. The debate was adjourned until to-morrow to enable the leaders to endeavour to establish agreement.

DUBLIN SHOOTINGS.

LONDON, February 21.

It appears that the two military men murdered in Dublin yesterday one of whom was a sergeant, were the victims of an ambush which had previously attacked
two military cars and set one of them afire.

Questioned in the House of Commons to-day, Mr.
Winston Churchill said that a detachment of Provisional and Crown forces was investigating the crime. He assured the House that the Provisional Government was doing its utmost to bring the perpetrators to justice and said that the military had recently been ordered to fire if assailed. Such firing was in self-defence and did not violate the treaty.

LATER.

The second officer wounded in Dublin is dead.

PRINCE'S DELHI SURPRISE.

UNEXPECTED GATHERING.

CROWD'S WILD ENTHUSIASM.

LONDON, February 21.

In the afternoon the Prince visited the people's fair on the big maidan in the vicinity of Delhi City. The organisers had intended to carry out a programme of sports, races, and wrestling matches etc., but a huge and enthusiastic crowd estimated at from 50,000 to 100,000 swamped the enclosures and when the Prince arrived on horseback with a few members of his staff literally chased him round the ground, cheering continuously.

The Prince who rode through the masses for half an hour saluting and smiling was delighted at the reception, for the crowd was extremely good natured and in the best of spirits and the police and military were powerless in preventing them paying homage to the Prince as the gathering in honour of him and the testimony of their anxiety to greet him was not expected.
It was a unique and magnificent success.

In many quarters the afternoon's demonstration is regarded as a severe blow to the non-cooperation movement in Delhi for the city people attended spontaneously in enormous masses and consistently applauded the Prince's progress—Sir Herbert Russell, Reuter's special correspondent.

LISBON QUIET AGAIN.

GOVERNMENT TAKING NO RISKS.

LONDON, February 21.

According to information received in London steps were taken by the Portuguese Government to avert the militarist revolutionary outbreak timed for February 19 and all effective troops were brought to Lisbon from the provinces. All is now quiet, but the president and the Government remain in the fortress of Cascaes at the mouth of the Tagus.

A Lisbon message to-day confirms the reports that everything is quiet and says that Republican guards are concentrated at the arsenal with howitzers, batteries and machine guns in readiness for any eventuality.

FAR EASTERN CABLE DELAYS.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S STATEMENT.

LONDON, February 21.

In the House of Commons, in answer to questions, Mr. Kellaway, the Postmaster General, ascribed the delay in cables to India and the Far East to a large increase in the traffic since the war. He pointed out that the Eastern Company had laid an additional cable between Britain and Singapore in 1919 and proposed to lay another in the near future and he hoped acceleration would result from forthcoming opening of the Tiflis-Cairo government cables which will work
by radio.

MUI TSUI QUESTION.

CHURCHILL'S DOUBTS.

APPROACHING LOCAL GOVERNOR.

LONDON, February 21.

In the House of Commons, asking for postponement of the questions with regard to the mui tsui system in Hongkong, Mr. Winston Churchill, Secretary of Colonies said he desired to correspond with the Governor of Hongkong regarding the matter as he was not entirely satisfied with the gist of the questions and answers in the Commons. (Cheers.)

SOUTH AFRICA'S LABOUR TROUBLES.

ELECTRIC POWER STRIKE BROKEN.

GOLDFIELDS POLICE MAKE BATON CHARGE.

JOHANNESBURG, February 21.

The coal and electric power strike at Vereeniging has been broken by the return of many strikers to the Colinella colliery and 31 members of the operating staff of the Victoria Falls power station. Work has also been resumed in the brick tile industry.

The position on the goldfields is unchanged except for a slight increase in the number of workers, while the output is progressive.

Mounted police made a baton charge and routed the Bosoni commando which had rescued the ringleader of a crowd that set fire to and destroyed a miner's house.

CAPETOWN, February 21.

In the assembly Mr. Burton, Minister of Finance, anticipated that the deficit on March 31 would be £1,900,000.

Mr. Jagger, Minister of Railways, estimated that owing to the strike there would be a railway deficit of £3,350,000.

COMING ROYAL WEDDING.

PROCESSIONS REHEARSED.

BRILLIANT SPECTACLE PROMISED.

LONDON, February 21.

As the royal wedding day approaches public interest grows more intense. Crowds have waited daily recently outside Buckingham Palace in the hope of catching a glimpse of the Princess who is very busy receiving deputations conveying gifts from provincial towns and public bodies of all sorts. There was a gathering at seven o'clock this morning on the occasion of a full dress rehearsal of the various processions, namely the Queen's, then the King with the Princess, from Buckingham Palace and Queen Alexandra's from Marlborough House, the idea being to time them so that the return to Buckingham Palace from the Abbey will be one continuous procession. The royal equerries, state chamberlain, and many guards' officers watched the proceedings in which cavalry participated.

EUROPE'S ECONOMIC BREAKDOWN.

INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION SCHEME.

LONDON, February 21.

Lord Inverforth presided at a meeting of the organising committee of the International Corporation to discuss a basis for formation of national and international corporations to carry out Mr. Lloyd George's proposals for economic reconstruction of Europe.
Representatives of France, Italy, Belgium and Japan were present. The proceedings were held in private.

[An earlier cable stated: The Corporation will be created by special British Act of Parliament, embodying available provisions of British Company law, exempting foreign holding from British income tax. The Corporation will consist of representatives of the national corporations which will be established by all participating states. The minimum capital will be equivalent to £20,000,000 and will be provided by the national corporations in their own currencies. The principal function of the new body will be the examining of financing opportunities for a European reconstruction and the arranging of security payment contract.]

PROPOSAL IN COURT.

GIRLS: "I CANNOT MARRY
THIS GOOD MAN."

While a charge of loitering made against a pretty girl, Lily Frewin, 23, of Reading, was being heard at Aldershot a young man hurried into court and offered to marry her.

"I love the girl," he said. "We were boy and girl together. As soon as I heard she was in this trouble I left my work at Reading and hurried here.

The chairman asked the girl if she would accept the man's proposal of marriage and have a home to go to.

The girl: "I would like a home, but I cannot marry this good man."

The young man gazed imploringly at the girl, holding out his arms.

The Chairman: She refuses your offer of marriage, and that apparently finishes it.

Still gazing at the girl, the young man slowly walked out of court, but as he heard the sentence, "One guinea or a month," he quickly returned and paid the fine. Then he and the girl left the court together.

But the reunion was of short duration. Waiting outside a shop while the girl made some purchases within, the young man discovered, after nearly an hour, that she had eluded him by leaving the shop by another door. After searching the town for her for several hours, he returned to Reading alone, still expressing, however, his intention of finding her and making her his wife.

ATHLETIC 'MARTYRS.'

HEADMASTERS ON SCHOOL
SPORT.

After a debate at the Headmasters' Conference at Merton College, Oxford, it was decided by a large majority to reassert objections to any increase in the number of public championship competitions between schools.

The headmaster of Rugby said: "As a headmaster I think anything like a championship meeting, whether in athletics or anything else, is undesirable." He added that they believed in relay races, but not in championship meetings, which meant a large expenditure of money, waste of time, and a great increase of publicity.

"If something can be done to bring together in a natural way two sets of boys it will be good for the boys and good for the nation," declared Mr. Hyde, of the Industrial Workers' Association. "Try to bring about matches between public school boys of the industrial centres, for sooner or later they are bound to meet as employers and workers, and if they are brought together in the friendly atmosphere of sport you may do something to heal some of the sores of the nation."

Mr. Cholmondeley, of Owens School, Kingston, said the worst difficulty headmasters had to meet was the constant attempt to get boys in the limelight. "Those champions," he declared, "are the martyrs of the athletic system."

You can't afford to allow your throat and lungs to be so sorely afflicted when it is such a simple thing to step into a chemist's shop and get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. You can't afford to let all Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

WHERE GENIUS FAILS.

UNABLE TO GRASP A POINT QUICKLY.

Defining "smartness" as the capacity to adjust oneself rapidly to the immediate circumstances. Professor T. H. Pear, University of Manchester, said at the Educational Association's Annual Conference at University College, Gower street, W.C., that "a genius is usually anything but smart, and he distinguishes himself from the merely smart man, lives up to external demands by refusing to accept the surroundings, by setting about them instead of allowing them to set about him.

"I believe that some geniuses might not achieve the topmost ranks in a good many mental tests, especially in those requiring rapid solution of problems. A genius never sees any complex problem in the same light as an ordinary person, and in a mental test may appear to be stupid.

"Some brilliant scientists would make woefully bad hospital orderlies, district visitors, or managers of a household. The reason is not that they cannot understand the problems involved but that they cannot attune themselves to the situation."

Prof. Pear divided people into two classes, the extroverts and the introverts. The extrovert won the V.C. The first-class aeroplane fighter is a specimen of the healthy extrovert,
but the mathematician who calculates
the aeroplane's stability is an equally healthy introvert.

FRANCS GAMBLE.

MILLIONS OF POUNDS
INVOLVED.

Disclosures of alleged illegal speculations in exchange values have been made recently, and it is stated that the French Director of Public Prosecutions is contemplating action against several highly placed officials of important banks in Paris.

These alleged private and illicit operations in francs, dollars, and pounds have it is reported, been largely responsible for the fluctuations in the exchange rates in the past 18 months. Prominent officials have, it is alleged, been conducting large gambling operations in exchange values under the cloak of genuine banking and commercial deals.

These operations are stated to have been on the largest scale and the total amount involved is stated to reach many millions of pounds.

When what was known as the "illicit exchange speculation ring" was discovered recently through the death of one of its members and the subsequent investigation of its accounts by his bank, the Directors of the establishment at once dismissed some of the employees alleged to have been concerned. It now appears likely that criminal proceedings will follow as speculation in exchange values is forbidden by French law.

TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 22, 1922.

OF BETTING SYSTEMAT- ICALLY.

"From first to last," writes the Sports Editor in Truth, "I have never hesitated to express the opinion that the man who bets persistently is bound to come off a loser in the end." His advice is to put a limit to the number of bets to be made, thereby, in the event of a run of bad luck, setting a known limit to the amount lost. "Even so the chances are against him." We take it that locally this excellent advice works automatically. That is to say, that the "limit" of our betters is the amount they can afford to pay for the fun and excitement they get out of the game. Anyone who risks more than he can "afford to lose" is a gambler for whom reason and self-control (and probably morality) have no appeal.

It is interesting to note that the Truth expert adhered to his opinion on top of a testimonial showing a successful year's tipping by him. Before the flat racing began in 1921 he gave a list of fifteen horses it should "pay to follow," and one of his readers consistently followed the list, putting on a pound each time any one of the fifteen was named. That meant an investment of £89. Sixty-four of these were losers, but the odds received made the balance of wins produce £132 17s 8d a profit of £43 17s 8d. This "satisfactory and very fortunate result" was largely due to Luminator paying fifty to one in the Royal Hunt Cup. Such odds, it may be remarked, are rare here, and not reckoned upon by local systematic sportsmen. Without that "fluke," the gentleman's winnings would have been by so much the less, and certainly not enough to satisfy anyone engaging in the game with the idea and purpose and hope of winning money. It is to be supposed that if all his bets had failed, he would still have considered that he had had value for his £89. How do our local men feel about it, both at start and finish? We suppose this Home sportsman has his local equivalents, in men who figure that they can afford to pay £712 for a season's flutter. Beyond the winners of the big sweeps, who must represent an insignificant minority as compared with the army of hopeful investors, the likely winners cannot represent a high percentage on the sums invested, judging by the average "tote" dividend. It must not be forgotten that any winnings at all must depend on the presence of participants who are less prudent, who punt more or less wildly. Let us suppose that all restricted their support to a proportion of the points equivalent to Truth's selected fifteen, and contented themselves with one ticket for each appearance. What would happen? Would not the dividends become still smaller? And presumably, the interest and excitement much less? These are speculative questions, and calculations to be pursued by local sportsmen in the day, soon to come, when they with one another will be fighting their battles again. At the moment, we imagine they are too busy.

The Philosophic Doubter.

Mr. Balfour is collecting the laurels now for his work at Washington where the ex-Premier who refuses to grow old is reckoned to have achieved the triumph of his career. On the submarine issue he won a great moral victory which has been described as "one of the greatest personal triumphs of our generation." By his quiet sincerity and the cogency of his arguments he won over the American delegates and turned the current of American thought on the subject of the submarine. This amusing pen picture of the Philosophic Doubter appears in the American Collier's Weekly. "A timid, puzzled peering at the attitude which Balfour has chosen to assume in public life. By dint of the greatest effort in the world he manages to mumble his words and stammer a little whenever he makes an address. William Gillette, the actor who prides himself on what he calls the illusion of the first performance is scarcely more adept than Balfour in creating the impression that he is not quite sure what he wants to say and is plucking a word here and there out of the air. Balfour will tackle the most momentous problem in this seemingly impromptu spirit. I assume that he first writes his speech and learns it by heart, and then takes a little practice in unlearning it, so that it will not sound glib when he delivers it. There are times during a speech when he will hesitate for several seconds, visibly and painfully fishing for a word, but if you know Balfour you realise that he has it up his sleeve all the time and is merely creating a dramatic effect."

Interport Sport.

Having defeated Hankow at Rugby and narrowly missed vanquishing Hongkong at golf, Shanghai is feeling quite elated at its interport prospects for the year. As the Shanghai Mercury puts it, 1922 has opened "not at all too badly" for its interporters. Now that the weather gives promise of warmer days, the same paper makes, the "always welcomed suggestion of a visit from Hongkong's cricketers" and adds that if Tientsin can participate about the same time so much the better. "The interport contest of years gone by have done much to keep the spirit of good sportsmanship properly keyed up—from Singapore to Yokohama—and, incidentally it has been the means of promoting not only good-fellowship but a fine understanding of the business realities and necessities of the different ports." As our Shanghai contemporary adds, the interport trip is itself a splendid holiday for those travelling to represent their own special port but "business taipans, we may assume, do not overlook the fact that the good sportsman is the more valuable, as such, in daily life and the broadening of his outlook by travel is as much for the good of his home as for himself." All very true, but were interport sport organised as it should be to cover Yokohama in the North and Singapore in the South, not to mention Manila, Saigon, and Bangkok, Hongkong would more often be the host than the guest, and would become the great sporting centre its handy location deserves.

Still Damp.

Reference was made in these columns on Monday to the crime wave sweeping the United States, and it was mentioned that the Washington Attorney General had been impelled to request his New York colleague to call a conference of all public prosecutors to consider action for the better enforcement of the criminal law. Later advice reports that the public prosecutors, duly assembled in conference at Albany, agreed that "the derision and contempt with which citizens in all walks of life regard the prohibition law is chiefly responsible for the conditions which to-day threaten the civilisation of the country." This opinion is strongly vindicated by the report reviewing the results of prohibition enforcement in the present fiscal year when not less than 35,000 arrests were made under the prohibition laws. Illicit distilling, it was stated, was now far more prevalent in the big cities than in the mountainous districts to which it was previously confined. With leading citizens winking at the violation of some laws, the public prosecutors conference emphasized, there was sure to be increasing disrespect for all laws. The Government must either enforce the prohibition law at all costs or repeal it. What the first course would entail is indicated by the cost to the Government of enforcing the dry laws last year. More than £40,000,000 was spent, and as one observer put it, many places are still "very damp."

HONGKONG RACE MEETING.

THIRD DAY'S RESULTS.

ALLIED KING WINS THE CHAMPIONS.

A NECK TO NECK STRUGGLE.

CHINESE CURIQ DEALER WINS RECORD SWEEP.

The spot of kings drew another big crowd out to Happy Valley to-day for the third day of the Hongkong Jockey Club's 1922 race meeting. Though the sky was still overcast it was a fine morning and the track was gradually drying up into still better condition.

Mr. Star's Derby yesterday will go down into local turf history as a sensational race. Mr. Moller really deserved to win. The start was such a ragged one that a recall seemed inevitable. Leftstanding the favourite had a big handicap to wipe off once it was discovered that the race was really begun. Length by length Mr. Moller crept up to the pack and then he worked through to give Sun Star the race of its life. It is hard to say, even now, which is the better pony. Though the public had put the proverbial "shirt" on Roman Pride, Mr. Doyle's victory was a popular one and both riders were deservedly applauded.

Mr. Doyle has four wins to his credit now and with Mr. Vida stands one behind the leading jockey, Mr. Hill. He seems to have the knack of getting out of his mount the last ounce of effort that wins the race. In the Derby he had only half a length to spare, he won by the same distance on Hurry Up in the Lusitano Cup and, riding Robbie Doo in the Royal Navy Cup he was just able to scrape home by a neck.

The Derby disposed of, all eyes were turned to day upon the candidates for the Champion Stakes. Those who had qualified during the first two days' racing were:—Hurry up, Kiangsu King, Mountain Bear, Stephanotis, Kenz, Empire Dablia, Bull Finch, Roman Pride, Repulse Bay Chief, Hatton, Honesty Dablia, Miserrimus Doleful, Sun Star, Sportsman Dablia, Robbie Doo, Speckled Mouse and Kilmarnock. By tiffin time to-day Wildfire Dablia, Ajax, Mosaic Tile and Allied King had been added to the list.

At the close of yesterday's racing programme Sir Paul Chater stood at the head of winning owners with four wins, three firsts and an equal number of thirds to his credit. The talk last night was that his "Empire Dablia" or "Honesty Dablia" would pull off the Champions for him to-day.

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Stubbs arrived in time to see the Ladies' Purse won by Mr. Hill on Allied King and subsequently they were present in the central stand when Miss Addie handed over the prize. The band of H.M.S. "Hawkins" furnished a capital programme of music on the lawn.

"HARD-BOILED."

KOWLOON THEATRE'S NEW COMEDY.

For Champions Day the Kowloon Theatre has secured a very entertaining picture in "Hard-Boiled," a Paramount feature with Dorothy Dalton principal player. An amusing portrayal of the joys and sorrows in the life of a "one-light-stand" actress, the story is very pleasing and very human. Among other adventures in a small town which refuses to go to the show unless handed a free ticket, the leading lady of the troupe finds herself forced to take to washing dishes. The humour in this and other entertaining situations is skilfully extracted with the result that "Hard-Boiled" makes a capital holiday picture.

The following fatal cases of notifiable disease were reported yesterday:—Three of plague, two of enteric fever, and one of small-pox—all Chinese.

The Legislative Council meets to-morrow afternoon. The Colonial Secretary will table the Finance Committee's report and the jurors list. The Council will consider the second reading of the bills to provide for police supervision of certain persons and to amend further the Opium Ordinance.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Knocked down by a truck in Wing On Street, yesterday a Chinese boy was removed to the hospital to have injuries to his legs treated.

While shifting cargo on board the s.s. "Lake Chopaka," yesterday a coolie was hit by a heavy bale being hoisted by the crane. His leg was fractured.

Nine dead bodies were found in various parts of the Colony yesterday. Death was due to natural causes in each case. One man dropped dead while waiting for a tram car at the Causeway Bay terminus.

The Rev. C. B. Shann has been appointed to act as Deputy Registrar of the Hongkong University during the absence of the Registrar, Dr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh who leaves for Shanghai by the "Empress of Russia" to-morrow at the invitation of the Shanghai Municipal Council to inspect its schools. Dr. Teesdale Mackintosh expects to return to the Colony about March 15.

A curious story appears in the Min Kuo Pao to the effect that the local office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. are having to look out for a Chinese crew for a new steamer, the "Tipon," which is said to be reaching Woosung, presumably from America, on February 28. The report is that the present crew of about 200 firemen and sailors—recruited in San Francisco—intend to leave the ship at Shanghai in sympathy with the Hongkong strike. The present crew are understood to be natives of Kwangtung and Fokien.

The death took place under very sad circumstances, at the Palace Hotel Shanghai on Sunday last week about noon of Mr. Edmund Percy Rowden, Consulting Engineer to the Shanghai Dock and Engineering Co., Ltd. It appears that he had breakfast at 9 o'clock, going up to his room again half an hour later. It happened that one of the hotel staff had occasion to enter into deceased's apartment and discovered Mr. Rowden lying dead. Deceased, who had been in the employ of the Shanghai Dock Co. for the past 20 months, had, prior to coming to Shanghai, been in charge of a number of engineering enterprises in Greece and in Northern India, and also on the Harbour Works at Bombay. During the war, Mr. Rowden was in charge of a plant for the manufacture of explosives in North Wales, and later was engaged in work for the Admiralty at Haulbowline in Cork Harbour. At the time of his death he was working on plans for a new dock for the Shanghai Dock & Engineering Co., Ltd., and was to have left during the next few weeks for British East Africa.

ANOTHER AIRSHIP DISASTER.

AMERICA'S SECOND LUCKLESS PURCHASE.

FORTY MEN REPORTED MISSING.

NEWPORT NEWS, February 21.

The army dirigible "Roma" recently purchased from Italy with a gas capacity of over a million cubic feet exploded and descended in flames while crossing Hampton Roads. Ten men were rescued badly burned out of a crew of 50.

FATAL NOSE DIVE.

LATER.

The War Department announces that the "Roma" was engaged in trial flights following the installation of Liberty motors replacing the Italian engines with which the airship was originally equipped.

Eye witnesses state that the Roma was flying at from 600 to 1,000 feet when a wisp of smoke appeared. The craft suddenly fell obliquely earthwards, striking one of the naval base barracks. Men were seen leaping out. Some were equipped with parachutes. The passenger cars broke away and fell to the ground pinning a dozen men underneath.

The official explanation says that the vertical controls carried away causing the machine to nose-dive striking the high tension electric wire en route and thus setting fire to the vessel.

TRADE REVIVAL PROSPECTS.

LITTLE HOPE THIS YEAR.

LONDON, February 21.

Speaking at Leeds, Colonel Armstrong, President of the Federation of British Industries, said that extensive information at the disposal of the Federation showed there was small hope of a general revival either in the home or export trade in the near future. Everything indicated we might still have to wait a year or longer.

PACIFIC TREATY.

SENATE POWERS.

SINGAPORE NAVAL BASE.

WASHINGTON, February 21.

The Senate foreign relations committee had a long debate on the proposed reservation to the Pacific treaty that "no adjustments or understandings reached under its provisions should be binding without the consent of the Senate." It is reported that the majority of the committee were inclined to approve the reservation.

PACIFIC POLICE FORCE.

NEW YORK, February 21.

The Chicago Tribune, writing editorially with reference to Senator Johnson's attitude telegraphed earlier, declares that a strong naval base at Singapore assures a police force within easy striking distance of the Pacific. A threat against the Philippines from an Asiatic power would be as menacing to Australasia as to America. The paper suggests to Senator Johnson the noise he hears across the Pacific of hammering in shipyards at Singapore is made by a friend and assures him that a strong naval base at Singapore is an added insurance that the Pacific treaty will not be violated.

HONGKONG'S NEW COMMODORE.

LONDON, February 21.

It is officially announced that Captain H. E. Grace has been appointed Commodore-in-Charge at Hongkong vice Commodore Bowden-Smith.

RIO DE JANEIRO EXHIBITION.

254 TONS OF SILVER.

BRITAIN'S LARGE CONSIGNMENT.

LONDON, February 21.

The largest consignment of silver since the war reached Plymouth from America consisting of 723 bars weighing 254 tons.

FAMOUS TRAINER DEAD.

SEVEN DERBY WINNERS.

LONDON, February 21.

Mr. John Porter, the trainer is dead.

[Mr. John Porter was the trainer of seven Derby winners, and winner of stakes amounting to £794,017 the largest amount ever won by any trainer of racehorses. Eight times horses trained by him were second and twice third.]

INGERSOLL FAILURE.

ASSETS BEING SOLD.

NEW YORK, February 21.

Owing to inability to reorganise the company, Ingersoll's assets are being sold immediately.

[A New York, cable dated December 28 stated:—A receiver has been appointed for the Ingersoll Company upon the application of the creditors with, it is believed, a view to reconstruction.]

SPECIAL CABLE.

PRINCE'S VISIT HERE.

SHANGHAI'S REPRESENTATIVES.

[China Mail Special.]

SHANGHAI, Feb. 22.

At St. George's Society annual meeting last night it was stated that Mr. E. C. Pearce, the President, will be one of the two representing Shanghai when the Prince of Wales visits Hongkong. ## SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

POSITION UNCHANGED.

DELEGATES NOT YET RETURNED.

The strike position remains unchanged from yesterday. The seamen's delegates, who went to Canton to place the Government's answer to the proposals of the Tung Wah Hospital before the men, had not returned at noon to-day. Nothing therefore is definite but the news which has filtered through is not encouraging. It is feared that the position will go back to the deadlock which existed before Saturday's meeting of the Tung Wah Hospital.

There has been little activity on the harbour. Ships in port are as under.
